

KNOW THE CIVIL SOCIETY NETWORKS IN THE EURO-MEDITERRANEAN

TARGET

Networks or entities with a regional scope and/or a trans-national structure in the Euro-Med Space, including the Southern Neighbourhood region.

3.200 Civil Society Organizations screened
 146 Civil Society Networks identified and mapped
 98 Civil Society Networks participating in the online survey

GEOGRAPHICAL SCOPE OF ACTIVITIES

5.1% Work worldwide
(being active in several continents)

2% In the Maghreb Region only

18.4% At the Southern Mediterranean level
(involving countries both in the Maghreb and Mashrek regions)

49% At the Euro-Mediterranean level

7.1% In the Mashrek Region only

4.1% In Arab countries
(including Mashrek and Maghreb)

More than 31 years.

10%

22-31 years.

12.2%

16 - 21 years.

14.2%

11 - 15 years.

22.5%

Less than 10 years.

41%

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE

WHAT DO CSOS MAINLY WORK ON?

Consolidating the democratic space and citizens' rights.

62.8%

Influencing institutions to better serve citizens.

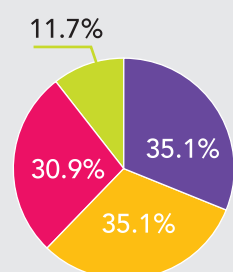

54.3%

Tackling socio-economic inequalities

(promoting access to education, job opportunities and basic services especially for particularly vulnerable groups, and others)

53.2%

Developing critical thinking - and/or Preventing radicalization

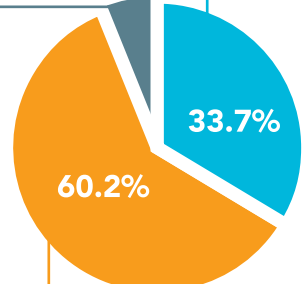

Addressing ecological challenges and their social implications (pollution, waste management, water treatment, etc.)
 Promoting gender equality

WHAT ARE THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF EURO-MEDITERRANEAN CSOS IN WHAT REFERS TO ADVOCACY AND POLICY-MAKING INFLUENCE?

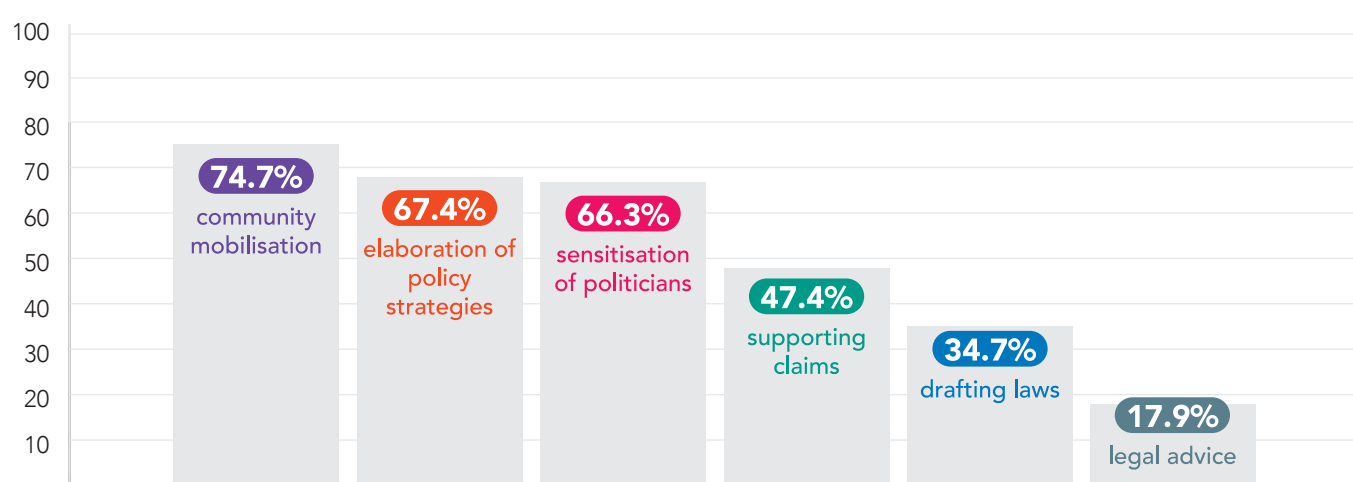

No experience

Have experience at national level

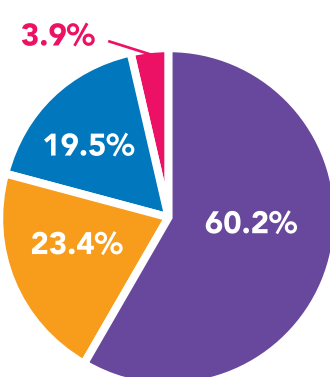

Have experience at transnational level

Their experience focuses on:

NETWORKS' PERCEIVED PRESSURE FROM EXTERNAL ACTORS

From the government
 From political parties
 From religious institutions
 From the private sector or donors

HOW DO CIVIL SOCIETY NETWORKS IN THE EURO-MEDITERRANEAN FINANCE THEIR ACTIVITIES?

